THE UNIVERSITY OF FINDLAY

Tenure-Track Faculty Position in the College of Pharmacy

The University of Findlay invites applications for a tenure-track faculty position in pharmacy practice. Preferred expertise includes inpatient, acute care or hematology/oncology practice. Primary classroom responsibilities would involve instruction on the application of pharmacy practice in our integrated Pharm.D. curriculum. Additionally, opportunities exist to teach multiple disciplines of health-profession students.

Candidates will be expected to participate in teaching and scholarly activity in a curriculum devoted to promoting the collaborative practice of pharmacy. Continued practice in the field of pharmacy is both encouraged and expected. A doctoral degree and eligibility for pharmacy licensure in Ohio are required. A residency or fellowship and prior college teaching experience are preferred. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications. Candidates must be committed to innovative practice and student-centered education as well as professional development and scholarship.

The University of Findlay is a Carnegie Master's L institution and is the largest private university in northwest Ohio. The College of Pharmacy is the newest professional school at the University and enrolls approximately 375 students in a six-year program leading to the PharmD degree. Related professional programs at the University include physician assistant, physical therapy, athletic training, occupational therapy, health informatics and nuclear medicine technology, as well as environmental, safety and occupational health management. The city of Findlay, population 39,000, is recognized as one of the best micropolitan communities in Ohio, with a strong business base and friendly atmosphere.

Applications should be sent to Dr. Don Stansloski, Dean, College of Pharmacy, The University of Findlay, 1000 N. Main Street, Findlay, OH 45840 or email to stansloski@findlay.edu. Applications should include a letter of application, a curriculum vitae, a one-page description of teaching philosophy and research interests, and three letters of reference. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the positions are filled. The University of Findlay is an equal opportunity employer and educator.
