

PHYSICIAN ASSISTANT: Tenure Track Faculty Position

The Physician Assistant Program at The University of Findlay invites applications for a 12 month, tenure track, full-time faculty position. The program seeks an applicant who believes in a team approach, is dedicated to providing quality PA education, and desires to grow with the program. The candidate will be responsible for development, coordination and maintenance of designated academic curriculum, student advising and teaching, service to the program and University, and scholarly activity.

Qualifications: Physician Assistant candidates must possess a Master's degree, be eligible for licensure in the State of Ohio, and have NCCPA certification. Candidates with at least 3 years of clinical experience, academic experience, and a record of scholarly activity are preferred. Salary and benefits are highly competitive. Rank is commensurate with prior academic experience and qualifications.

The University of Findlay is a growing and innovative institution with an enrollment of approximately 4000 full-time students and is located 45 miles south of Toledo, Ohio. The College of Health Professions serves over 800 students in professional programs including physician assistant, physical therapy, occupational therapy, social work, nuclear medicine technology, and athletic training. The College is also closely allied with a new College of Pharmacy and there are opportunities for interdisciplinary teaching, research, and service across the health professions and with science programs in environmental and occupational health safety.
